

Prerequisite Form for ARA Certified Forklift Train-the-Trainer

To be eligible to participate in the ARA Certified Forklift Train-the-Trainer program, an individual must hold certification as a forklift operator for at least two years, without any significant lapses in operating a forklift during that time.

In lieu of the operator certification documentation, the applicant may submit this form completed by a supervisor, company officer, or owner. Please contact education@ararental.org if you are unsure if your experience meets the prerequisites requirements.

Applicant's Name:

First: _____ Last: _____

As a supervisor, company officer, or owner, I confirm that the above stated applicant is an employee of _____ (print company name) and that they meet or exceed the American Rental Association (ARA) requirement of two years' experience working with and operating forklifts.

In addition, by signing this document, I verify that the applicant is knowledgeable about forklifts, forklift safety and all rules, regulations and requirements set forth by applicable regulatory and standard agencies. Furthermore, the applicant is a safe operator and has not been involved in any accidents, incidents, or property damage as a result of their negligence or lack of focus on safety.

By signing below, I verify that the above information is correct and accurate.
